

Time	Tuesday November 6, 2007 (Day 1 of 2)
7:45 – 8:30	Registration and check-in -Continental Breakfast
8:30 – 8:40	Introductions	Dan Swanson, Conference Chair
8:40 - 9:30	Why ISO27001 is setting the world of information security and compliance on fire, and how to implement it in a few easy lessons	Alan Calder, IT Governance Ltd., London, England.
9:30 - 10:15	Making Executives Accountable	Michael Legary, Securis Inc. Winnipeg, MB
10:15 - 10:30	Our Morning Coffee Break
10:30 - 11:15	A unified approach to security; international regulations and standards beyond ISO 27001	Dorian J. Cougias, Unified Compliance Framework
11:15 - 12:00	Best in Class Security	Gene Kim, Tripwire, Portland, OR
12:00 - 1:30	Luncheon keynote address "The Sky is Falling"	Hal Tipton, Tipton and Associates
1:30 - 2:30	Multi track sessions - Group 1 Sessions
	1-1 Information Security Management Maturity Models	Anthony Nelson, ESTec, Edmonton, AB
	1-2 Operational Resiliency – The Next Priority	Howard Pierpont, Andover, MA
2:30 - 3:00	Our afternoon coffee break
3:00 - 4:00	Multi track sessions - Group 2 Sessions
	2-1 Maximizing Performance Through IT Strategy	Andy Behnke, Deloitte, Winnipeg, MB
	2-2 Mass Collaboration and Second Life - Living and Working Virtually	Jan Wolynski, Pricewaterhouse Coopers, Winnipeg, MB
	2-3 Developing and Implementing an Information Security Policy for the B.C. Government	Lori Bulmer, Province of B.C., Victoria, BC
4:00 - 5:00	Panel Discussion – What are the current priorities for security?	Alan Calder moderator, Howard Pierpont, Lori Bulmer, Lilly Bi and Hal Tipton
5:00 - 7:30	Reception Sponsored by Securis, Inc.	